

With regard to Media Ownership Limits .. don't believe station owners that tell you limited ownership will benefit the public interest. I have worked in newsrooms for both independent and network affiliated stations. In every instance, network affiliates provided greater service to the community. There is no more reason to limit broadcast ownership than there is to limit grocery store ownership. Please allow the marketplace to determine what local programming the public wants .. not rules that protect a few owners.